

Who invented beer?

One day Bob and Sam were sitting around.

Sam : "Bob what do we have to eat?"

Bob: "We have some grain we have in a pot"?

Bob goes to check. Finds it really smells bad.

Bob " the grain is not good."

The two get up and go hunting.

They return empty handed.

Sam ask Bob "Bob how bad was that grain"

Bob "bad"

Sam "Well we have not eaten in 2 days. Either we eat the grain or I am going to eat you!"

Bob" Well we should give the grain a chance. It was not that bad."

They both eat the grain and liquid.

Half way through Sam says "you I am feeling better"

Bob " ya this was a really good day.

They find that the grain and water makes the day a lot better.

They begin to put grain in pots with water to allow god to turn it to a magic drink.
