Apprentice Information

Brigadoon Brewery & Brew School offers a unique opportunity to learn how to brew beer in a 15th century atmosphere. Our apprentice program is believed to be a one of a kind program which takes place at the Texas Renaissance Festival, the largest renaissance festival in the United States.

During the nine weekends of the fair, apprentices are exposed to all aspects of brewing using 15th and 16th century techniques and experience what it means to work at a renaissance festival. We promise long days and hard work.

All of our brewers have worked their way through the time honored apprentice program. Starting with as a non-paid apprentice our members work through each stage of the apprentice program. Those who complete the program are considered for full paid positions. To be considered for the apprentice program all applicants must complete the following and meet the following minimum standards:
